- The National Association of Activity Professionals recognizes the following values:
- NAAP supports quality of life through person-centered care practices is the primary reason for our services.
- NAAP champions the cultural and educational backgrounds of its members and values diversity in quality of life.
- NAAP directs advocacy and research which furthers the definition and support to the Activity Profession.
- NAAP values the development and maintenance of coalitions with organizations whose mission is similar to that of NAAP's for the purpose of advocacy, research, education, and promotion of activity services and the profession.
- NAAP encourages members to become involved at the state and local levels with promoting professional standards and competencies.

Pioneer Network

Are there any positive outcomes from this Pandemic?

Envisioning the Future 2020 & BEYOND Pioneer Network

Residents are learning technology, using more technology, and people are trying new things.

Envisioning the Future 2020 & BEYOND Pioneer Network

We're also realizing the limits of technology.

Realizing our potential with tech, but there are limits

Envisioning the Future 2020 & BEYOND Pioneer Network

The future of activities and engagement will be a mix, a proper balance of tech and traditional

But always safe
